For the Love of Books

Book Club

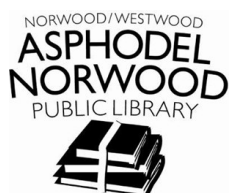

Last year we "read around the world."
This year we invite you to read for the love of books and reading.

We will choose the genre or theme for the month and you pick a book to read within that theme.

If you wish to join the book club and get notices of the upcoming theme and the next meeting date, please sign up by emailing treed@antownship.ca.
If you want to read along, but don't want to come to the meetings, there is a list of the genres/themes on our website as well.

This book club is different because you choose the book you want to read. We don't all read the same book and dissect it with questions. We share our choices, tell a little bit about the book, and decide if we would recommend it for someone to read.

We meet on the last Tuesday of each month at 6:00 pm at our Norwood branch (unless otherwise specified), and meetings are not mandatory.
